

DAILY OPERATOR CHECKLIST - AERIAL LIFTS

Must be performed before each shift

Date		Operator		Shift
Model		Serial#		AWP#

CHECK THE APPROPRIATE BOX FOR EACH ITEM LISTED BELOW

VISUAL CHECKS	Monday		Tuesday		Wednesday		Thursday		Friday		Saturday
	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL
Tire and Wheel Condition, Outriggers if equipped.
Railings, entry gates, chains, Loose railing pins or hardware.
Leaks (hydraulics, brakes, and drive unit)
Structural Damage, cracked welds
Engine Oil Level (If applicable)
Radiator Water Level (check cold if applicable)
Fuel level
Loose or damaged electrical cords, connectors, controls or wiring.
Hour Meter
Gauges and Instruments
Battery, Battery fluid level and Battery Connector
Hydraulic oil level (with platform fully lowered).
Data plate, Decals, Warning labels missing or not readable
Operators manual and ANSI Manual of Responsibilities on board.

DAILY OPERATOR CHECKLIST - AERIAL LIFTS

Must be performed before each shift

OPERATIONAL CHECKS	Monday		Tuesday		Wednesday		Thursday		Friday		Saturday
	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL	O.K.	FAIL
Horn (if applicable)
Steering
Brakes
Parking Brake
Operating and Emergency Controls
Tilt Alarm
Battery Charger
Attachments
Limit Switches and Safety Devices
Battery Charge, Discharge indicator, Battery Load Test
Battery, Battery fluid level and Battery Connector
Hour Meter Reading
SUPERVISOR'S AUTHORIZATION

REMARKS: (Items needing repair or adjustments)

CAUTION: Any Aerial Work Platform found to be in need of repair, is unsafe, or contributes to unsafe conditions, must be removed from service and the supervisor notified. If the Aerial Work Platform becomes unsafe while in operation, remove from service, tag it out of service and notify a supervisor. Only authorized people are allowed to repair or make adjustments on Aerial Work Platforms.